

Social Media Policy

Thank you for being a fan of GRAM's social media channels. GRAM participates in social media in order to engage individuals and organizations who have an interest in art, design, and creativity. GRAM provides content on social media to encourage participation, discussion, and reflection.

Posted comments and images do not necessarily represent the views of GRAM. External, non-GRAM links do not constitute official endorsement on behalf of the GRAM.

While we encourage fans to share thoughts and opinions on GRAM's social media pages, we expect that this will be done in a respectful manner.

GRAM does not agree with or endorse every comment that individuals post on our pages. Our goal is to share ideas and information with as many individuals as possible and our policy is to accept the majority of comments made to our social media pages.

A comment will be deleted if it contains:

- Hate speech,
- Pornography,
- Defamation to a person or people,
- Name calling and/or personal attacks,
- Comments whose main purpose are to sell a product,
- Comments that infringe on copyrights,
- Spam comments, such as the same comment posted repeatedly on a profile,
- Other comments that the GRAM deems inappropriate.

All links posted as comments on GRAM posts will be reviewed and may be deleted. Repeated violations of the GRAM comment policy may cause the author to be blocked from GRAM's social media profiles.

We understand that social media is a 24/7 medium; however, our moderation capabilities are not. We may not see every inappropriate comment right away, and we are trusting in the maturity of our community to ignore personal attacks and negative speech or respond politely.

Please contact pr@artmuseumgr.org if you have any questions.

8.24.16